

2009 SUMMER CONCERT SEASON – FREE ADMISSION!

Open Lawn Seating. Concerts begin at 7:30 pm. Sunday evening concerts begin at 6:30 pm.

WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY
Música Latina	World Music	Night Rhythms	American Roots	Target Children's Night
July 8 6:00pm Opening Celebration Gabby Villanueva Rising dynamic singer songwriter spans mariachi to pop rock	July 9 Lili Haydn The "female Jimi Hendrix" of the electric rock violin	July 10 Mandrill Legendary sensations of Funk, R&B, Jazz, Latin & Rock	July 11 Trey Hensley 19 year old Country music guitarist and singer	July 12 Hudson Vagabond Puppets "Ferdinand the Bull" Spanish story of the Bull who refuses to fight
July 15 La Charanga Cubana Cuban charanga music mixes old and new Havana sounds	July 16 West African Highlife Band A high energy dance band from Nigeria, West Africa	July 17 Locos por Juana Funky Latin rock fusion from Miami	July 18 Jim Lauderdale Multi-talented GRAMMY winning bluegrass singer/songwriter	July 19 Bob Baker Marionettes Enchanting stories and delightful tales from LA's marionette master
July 22 Estani Female tejano/conjunto singer/songwriter with a funky sexy flare	July 23 MORLEY Modern soul music sung with an earthy, sensual & socially conscious voice	July 24 La Fanfare du Belgistan Eclectic mix of gypsy, Arabic and Macedonian music from Belgium	July 25 Amia Dane Quintet Hip jazz singer with a lush and dynamic vocal range	July 26 Youth Talent Night exceptional talent from Westlake & surrounding communities Supported by United Latino Fund & MacArthur Park Neighborhood Council
July 29 Pedro Rivera Banda music by acclaimed patriarch of the corrido	July 30 Pharaoh's Daughter Basya Schechter leads her folk rock band with Mizrachi, Sephardic and Hasidic music influences	July 31 Rasheed Ali &amp; Rain People Afro-Latino Music of the Caribbean <small>THIS CONCERT IS SPONSORED BY LOS ANGELES COUNTY SUPERVISOR GLORIA MOLINA</small>	August 1 I See Hawks in LA with The Chapin Sisters LA's best alternative country band with Sisters' lush harmonies	August 2 Silk and Thunder Traditional dance and music from Korea, Japan and China. <small>Co-sponsored by the Pico Union Neighborhood Council</small>
August 5 Nachito Herrera Quintet Latin jazz piano virtuoso plays rich combination of old & new Cuban rhythms	August 6 Black Violin Hip hop meets classical with two urban violinists and a DJ	August 7 Vagabond Opera Eclectic repertoire of cabaret with lyrics in eleven languages	August 8 TIZER with Lao Tizer Innovative contemporary jazz composer and keyboard player	August 9 Aaron Nigel Smith &amp; The FUNDamentals Band Up-tempo rhythm filled music & movement
August 12 La Santa Cecilia A Latin blend of bolero, cumbia, jazz, afro-cuban, tango, norteño & more	August 13 M.A.S.S. Music, dance, visual art and a not to be missed giant musical harp	August 14 UPGROUND Fresh blend of Latin, ska, reggae, cumbia, and more from East LA	August 15 BettySoo Second generation Korean-American pop folk artist	August 16 Choo Choo Soul Playhouse Disney Artist funks up children's music w/soul and beat boxing
August 19 Javier Garcia Cuban/Irish guitarist and songwriter rocks the new Miami pop sound	August 20 ELAN Lead singer of the legendary Wailers Reggae and Rap	August 21 Dean Mora &amp; His Orchestra Classic American Big Band played 'old school'	August 22 Los Cenzontles Fresh Chicano sound infused with gutsy soul of Mexican roots music	August 23 David Kirton "Island Songs for Children" Spirited children's folk songs and legends from Barbados
August 26 Flaco Jiménez Multi GRAMMY award winning icon of Tex-Mex conjunto music	August 27 Cedric Watson &amp; Bijou Creole Creole & zydeco by cutting edge fiddler	August 28 Bat Makumba Punk influenced foro and rock infused samba from Brazil	August 29 The Mannish Boys Blues veterans and youngbloods bring down the house	August 30 The Handsome Little Devils Fantastic vaudeville comedy adventure with highly skilled circus acts
September 2 Huayucaltia Innovative Latin American folk-jazz-fusion band	September 3 LIRA Contemporary South African GRAMMY winning jazz artist	September 4 Volumen Cero Rock n Roll by a new generation of Latino musicians	September 5 Old Blind Dogs Traditional Scottish folk quartet performs impassioned live show	September 6 INCA the Peruvian Ensemble Pipes, strings, and drums from the Andes
September 9 RADAID From Guadalajara. Electronic jazz mixed with Arabic, Indian, and African music	September 10 Brokedown Cadillac Modern Country Rock band with a female vocalist	September 11 7 pm Korean Music Celebration	September 12 6:30 pm Central American Independence Day Celebration Macondo y sus Latin Brothers Veteran singer of La Sonora Dinamita	September 13 6:30 pm Mexican Independence Day Celebration Fiesta Jarocha with Conjunto Hueyapan