

Mayor's Office Representative: Mr. Scott Perez

Mr. Scott Perez is the Mayor's appointee to the Los Angeles Equine Advisory Committee. He is a second generation horseman. His father, Pedro "Jim" Perez, began a stable business in Los Angeles in 1971. Today, the Perez Family is a respected and well established horse business throughout Los Angeles City and County with boarding stables, horse sales, multiple rental stables, and movie work. Mr. Perez also participates in parades for children with the California Rangers. He is a true professional, known for reliability and common sense. For the past four years, Mr. Perez has provided horses for a children's event at the Mayor's "Big Sunday." He is a well-respected Latino businessman and lives in Los Angeles with his wife and two sons.
