

COUNCIL DISTRICT 8 REPRESENTATIVE: Mr. Todd LaVergne

Mr. Todd LaVergne is a longtime resident of Los Angeles and lives here with his wife and two sons. He considers himself a man of God and for the past 14 years, works as a route salesperson for the Frito Lay Company. As a resident in Council District Eight, Mr. LaVergne has been active with his children in baseball and basketball, and is also an outdoor enthusiast in hunting, fishing, camping, and equestrian activities. He owns two horses that are boarded at the Richland Farms in Compton. As a member of the Equine Advisory Committee, Mr. LaVergne is highly qualified to deal with the unique issues of urban horse-keeping. He brings a wealth of experience and common sense to the LAEAC.
