

CITY OF LOS ANGELES
DEPARTMENT OF RECREATION AND PARKS
STUDIO CITY RECREATION CENTER
12621 RYE ST. STUDIO CITY, CA 91604
Phone: (818) 769-4415 Fax: (818) 769-4724
Email: studiocity.recreationcenter@lacity.org

Dance Instructor

NUMBER OF POSITIONS AVAILABLE

2

Hours Available:

- 4:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Weekly Available Hours

- 0-6 hours per week

Description of Duties:

- Have experience in teaching youth and adults.
- Ability to supervise children
- Ability to teach, lead, and assist children in Dance.
- Be able to communicate with Parents and staff.
- Provide instruction in one or more of the following class genres:
 - Hip Hop, Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Salsa, Modern, Contemporary, Zumba

Qualifications:

- Applicants must be available to work early morning and or late afternoon shifts. Experience instructing and/or implementing instruction at a youth, high school, collegiate, and/or pre-professional level in one or more of the above genres. Applicants should have at least six months of prior experience in supervising children. Applicants must be available to attend all training sessions and mandatory staff meetings. Applicants must have the ability to develop and implement activities for kids of all ages. Applicant must possess an invested passion and enthusiasm for Dance
- Applicants must have reliable transportation, be punctual, autonomous, self-governing, and motivated towards excellence.
- Ability to promote classes through word of mouth, delivering and distributing flyers to schools, organizations, and local businesses.
- Essential assets for the ideal Dance Instructor is to have enthusiasm for the job, possess good sense of humor, have good character, be responsible, be a good role model, be a team player and have good communication skills.

To Apply:

- Send resume to: Stephanie Estrada
Recreation Coordinator
Ph. (818) 769-4415
Email – stephanie.estrada@lacity.org

Last Day to Apply: August 18, 2023