The Banning Museum to Hold Annual Victorian Christmas Celebration

Wilmington, CA – On Saturday, December 7th from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., The Banning Museum will kick off the holiday season with our annual Victorian Christmas Celebration. The event is FREE admission for the general public and will be held at The Banning Museum, 401 East “M” Street, Wilmington, CA 90744.

Victorian Christmas at the Banning Museum has been an annual holiday tradition in the greater Los Angeles Area for over 30 years. The Museum grounds are transformed into a Christmas Festival featuring Victorian period entertainment, walk-thru tours of the festively decorated Banning Mansion, blacksmith demonstrations, refreshments, family holiday crafts, a bake sale, local food vendors, handmade crafts by area artisans, and Jolly ‘Ole St. Nick himself will pose for photos with the little ones in an historic carriage. One of the highlights of the festivities is a horse-drawn trolley ride to the Drum Barracks Civil War Museum, also in Wilmington.

For more details about this event or The Banning Museum, please contact Friends of Banning Museum at (310) 548-2005 or visit www.thebanningmuseum.org.

The Banning Museum is a facility of the City of Los Angeles, Department of Recreation and Parks and is operated in cooperation with Friends of Banning Museum.
