CODE OF ETHICS

1. This Code of Ethics for athletic officials has been developed to protect and promote the best interest of Recreation and Parks and the officiating profession. Its primary purpose is to clarify and distinguish ethical and approved professional practices from those that are detrimental and harmful.
2. I will study the rules, observe the work of other officials, and will, at all times, attempt to improve myself.
3. I will endeavor to keep my body in sound physical condition. I will have regular physical examinations to assure myself and my associates of my physical capabilities.
4. I will remember that while my work as an official is important, I must conduct myself in such a way that attention is drawn, not to me, but to the boys and girls playing the game. I will keep in mind that the game is more important than the wishes of any individual player or the ambitions of any individual official.
5. I will dress and maintain my appearance in a manner befitting the dignity and importance of my profession.
6. I will shape my character and conduct so as to be a worthy example to the boys and girls who play under my jurisdiction.
7. I will be fair and unbiased in my decision, rendering them without regard to the score.
8. I will give my complete cooperation to the Recreation Centers, which I serve, and to the City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks.
9. I will cooperate with my fellow officials and will do nothing to cause them public embarrassment.
10. I will, in my actions on the floor or field, be firm but not overbearing; courteous, but not ingratiating; positive, and never rude; dignified, but never "cocky"; friendly, but not overly friendly; calm, but always alert.
11. I will not officiate a game after having any alcoholic drink that day.
12. I will not criticize or attempt to explain a fellow officials' judgment or decision.
