Picnic Permit Reservations

Are you looking to host a birthday party, work function, or another type of event requiring the usage of one of our picnic areas?

Picnic sections require a permit. Contact the office for pricing, availability, and permit process. Ph:(818) 995-1690

If you are a person with a disability and require accommodation to participate in a City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks program, service, or activity, requests may be made by calling the facility (818) 995-1690, or 711 for CA Relay, ten days in advance of the event. We will do our best to fulfill requests with less than ten business days' notice.

If a participant requires a one to one aide, requests will be fulfilled within seven business days of receiving required paperwork and documentation needed to issue a Right of Entry Permit to the agency providing the aide.

The courts are reserved for our classes however are available for public use when classes are not in session. To ensure a positive play experience for all, please read and observe the court posted rules.

City of Los Angeles
Department of Recreation and Parks

OUTDOOR OPEN-PLAY PICKLEBALL COURT RULES

1. Department issued permits must be obtained for private instruction. Visit the park office for pricing and availability. (L.A.M.C. SEC. 63.44)
2. Court reservations are available on a limited basis.
3. No activities, except racquet sports, are allowed on the courts.
4. No food, drinks, pets (exception for service animals), or music are allowed on the courts.
5. Profane, abusive language and unsportsmanlike behavior is prohibited.
6. Children must be properly supervised at all times.
7. Routine maintenance and Department sponsored recreation programs have priority.

For concerns about court rule violations, please contact the park office.

WAITING SYSTEM

1. Games are played to 11 points, and must be won by 2 points.
2. Those waiting shall place their paddle in the first open slot in the paddle rack. The "next" indicator shows who has the next game and is shifted left to right when the incoming players take the court.
3. If there are more players waiting to play than available spaces in the paddle rack, players shall place their paddles on the ground, under the paddle rack, and then move the group of paddles to the rack once a spot becomes available.
4. Play is on a rotational basis (4-on/4-off or 2-on/2-off) when all courts are in use and there are players waiting. No new game may be started without first checking the paddle rack for waiting players.
5. Players may not have a paddle in the paddle rack and be playing simultaneously.
6. All players must fully vacate the court at the end of a game and call out "open court". After vacating the court, players must place their paddles in the paddle rack, if they wish to play again.
7. The next waiting group shall take the vacated court. The entire group of players (4 for doubles) must be present when their court becomes available, if there are other players waiting.
8. If a foursome has 1, 2, or 3 paddles in front of them in the paddle rack and wishes not to split up the foursome, they may place their paddles accordingly in the second slot on the paddle rack and newer arriving players may place their paddle(s) in front of them.
