As a covered entity under Title II of the American with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and upon request will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, service and activities. Achieving gender equity through a continuous commitment to girls and women in sports. Information subject to change or cancellation.
As a covered entity under Title II of the American with Disabilities Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability and upon request will provide reasonable accommodations to ensure equal access to its programs, service and activities. Achieving gender equity through a continuous commitment to girls and women in sports. Information subject to change or cancellation.