Teen Club also participates in Community Service projects all around the City of Los Angeles. Field Trips are also available to Amusement Parks, Cultural Trips, Educational Trips, Performances, Snow Trips, and Sporting Events.

Wabash Teen Club is here to provide a youth program with structures and discipline in order to help the teens in our community succeed in school and life.

Teen Club is run by a Point System. In every program that a teen participates in during the month they earn points. The top seven point earners get to go on the field trips. Points can also be earned by having good grades in school and showing the report card to a staff member. Points can also be taken away if a teen club member does not follow the rules of the Recreation Center.
