

City of Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks - Valley Region

Salute to Recreation

Headquarters: 6335 Woodley Avenue, Van Nuys, CA 91406

Tel: 818.756.8060

FACTSHEET

Salute to Recreation

What: The free "Salute to Recreation" was created in the San Fernando Valley in 1982 as a means of acquainting the community with some of the activities and services offered by the Recreation and Parks Department. It became an immediate success in its first year, focusing on good, clean fun activities that could be enjoyed by the entire family. At its height, and estimated annual attendance of 25,000 enjoyed the festivities over the 3-day weekend.

Where: Northridge Recreation Center
10058 Reseda Blvd., Northridge, CA 91324
Cross streets: Reseda Blvd. and Devonshire Street

Admission: Free to the public

Features and Attractions: past and present:

- 50+ Dinner and Dance
- Inflatables
- International Food Trucks
- Carnival Rides and Games
- Cheer and Dance Expo
- Stages of Entertainment - tribute bands, local musicians, children's entertainment
- Children's Village -Arts & Crafts Activities
- Karaoke Contest
- Community Organization Booths
- Volleyball Invitational
- Beverage Garden
- Marketplace Vendors

Information:

Prior to Event: (818) 756-8060

Email: rap.salute@lacity.org

Day of Event: 818-349-0535

www.laparks.org/salute