Ka Makani (Wind)
One arm extends at a 45 degree angle out from your side in the direction of movement. Your other arm up should be placed over your head, bent at the elbow whilst your hand circles above head.

Ka Lā (Sun)
Both hands curve up together to form a ball. It can also be one arm bent at the elbow, hand pointing up and palm facing in.

Niu (Palm trees)
Hand of left arm supports elbow of right arm with palm down. The right arm should be bent up at your side with the palm facing to the left. Hand sways like a tree in the breeze.

Ua (Rain)
Gentle waving of fingers moving up and down on either side.

Mahina (Moon)
Both hands curve up to form a ball.
